A Story to Ponder... "Why do I need to attend church?" asked one man of his minister. "I can stay home and read my Bible and be just as good a Christian as my friends who attend church."

The pastor merely smiled, then walked over to the fire, took one red-hot coal, and laid it off by itself. Soon the red coal lost its glow and gradually became gray and cold.

"You understand now?" asked the minister.

"Yes, I understand." And the man smiled.

Who must be the center of the church in order to make it successful?

Psalm 127:1 says "Except the LORD build the house, they labour in vain that build it: except the LORD keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain."

"Picture a large circle, from the edge of which are many lines all running toward the center. The nearer these lines approach the center, the nearer they are to one another. Thus it is in the Christian life. The closer we come to Christ, the nearer we shall be to one another. God is glorified as His people unite in harmonious action." (2 MCP pg. 501, 502)
